

Three HNA physicians named 2013 'Super Doctors'

MISSION VIEJO, Calif. – Three Head and Neck Associates of Orange County (HNA) physicians, John Supance MD, Mark Wohlgemuth MD and Dennis Crockett MD have been selected as 2013 Southern California "Super Doctors." for the specialty of Otolaryngology in Mission Viejo.

They are featured in the January 2013 edition of Los Angeles Magazine, as well as on SuperDoctors.com.

Nominations for this distinction come from their peers, and are grouped into 33 specialties. The Super Doctors research team then investigated further and searched for exceptional doctors to complement the results. Super Doctors is a registered trademark of Key Professional Media, Inc.
